

BRITISH JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY NURSING

bjcn.co.uk

Volume 30 Number 12
December 2025

The only monthly journal dedicated to nursing in the home

Understanding capacity and decision-making issues in dementia care

Confidence gap in community specialist diabetes nurses and general practice nurses in navigating diabetes technology

Breaking the chain of infection in community care by adapting prevention and control strategies

BRITISH JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY NURSING

Volume 30 Number 12 December 2025

- | | |
|--|--|
| Editorial 552 The 'long' consequences of COVID-19 and implications for community nurses
Catriona Kennedy Clinical 553 Prevention of arm lymphoedema after breast cancer: what health professionals need to know
Sinead Cobbe, Kathy Nugent Longterm conditions 560 Understanding capacity and decision-making issues in dementia care
Phil Joddrell, Edward Lee, Katrina Vollentine, Karen Harrison Denning Case study 566 Subarachnoid haemorrhage linked to B12-related thrombocytopenia in an older patient
Fatma Zehra Agan Professional 570 Breaking the chain of infection in community care by adapting prevention and control strategies
Sarah Jane Palmer | Research 574 Confidence gap in community specialist diabetes nurses and general practice nurses in navigating diabetes technology
Bethany Kelly, Tamsin Fletcher-Salt, Amanda Williams Reflections 584 Closing the gap between policy ambition and capacity for district and community nursing
Crystal Oldman Policy 588 A policy perspective on workforce pressures and retention in district nursing
Michelle McBride Palliative care 592 The lasting therapeutic power of evergreens
Dion Smyth Research roundup 594 Review of recently published articles
Aysha Mendes |
|--|--|