

BRITISH JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY NURSING

bjcn.co.uk

Volume 29 Number 9
September 2024

The only monthly journal dedicated to nursing in the home

An abstract graphic featuring several overlapping silhouettes of human heads and shoulders in profile. The silhouettes are rendered in solid colors: a large dark blue one in the center, a red one to the left, a light blue one to the right, and a black one at the bottom. The silhouettes are facing each other, creating a sense of interaction or conversation.

Prevalence of elder abuse:
a narrative review

Community nursing and the digital technology revolution: the past, present and future

An overview of manual lymphatic drainage

BRITISH JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY NURSING

Volume 29 Number 9

September 2024

- | | | | |
|--|------------|---|------------|
| Editorial | 413 | Clinical | 432 |
| Researching vulnerable populations for palliative care
Brian Nyatanga | | The role of the district nurse providing care to service users with obsessive compulsive disorder
Amanda Hobson | |
| While's Words | 416 | Professional | 438 |
| The expectations of informal carers
Alison While | | An overview of manual lymphatic drainage
Sarah Jane Palmer | |
| Research roundup | 419 | Professional | 442 |
| Review of recently published articles
Aysha Mendes | | Prevalence of elder abuse: a narrative review
Tiago Horta Reis da Silva | |
| Palliative care | 422 | Professional | 447 |
| Sexual bereavement: a forgotten concept
Brian Nyatanga | | Community nursing and the digital technology revolution: the past, present and future
Francesca Ramadan | |
| Policy | 423 | | |
| Legal aspects of dying and the community nurse
Iwan Dowie | | | |
| Clinical | 425 | | |
| Trainee district nurses' understanding and perceptions of the palliative care key worker role: a qualitative study
Lisa McDonald and Felicity Hasson | | | |