

BRITISH JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY
NURSING

bjcn.co.uk

Volume 31 Number 3
March 2026

The only monthly journal dedicated to nursing in the home

Family members' experiences of end-of-life care in the home:
a systematic review and qualitative content analysis

The role and importance of the district nurse in managing patients who self-neglect

Pain relief in chronic wounds in older people and its impact on healing and quality of life

BRITISH JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY
NURSING

Volume 31 Number 3

March 2026

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| Editorial 108 Adapting to the effects of climate change Jane Griffiths Care of the older person 110 Factors affecting skin health in older people Sandra Lawton Professional 116 The role and importance of the district nurse in managing patients who self-neglect Tara Tomassi Professional 122 Pain relief in chronic wounds in older people and its impact on healing and quality of life Linda Nazarko | Research 128 Family members' experiences of end-of-life care in the home: a systematic review and qualitative content analysis Wendy Walker, Pamela Collins, Jennifer Jones, Jodie Winfield, Nikolaos Efstathiou Professional 142 Assessing and managing delirium in terminally ill adults in the community Anne Finucane, Elizabeth Arnold, Scott Mcildowie, Hilary Nailon, Juliet Spiller Reflections 147 'Treatment to prevention' at the heart of community and primary care nursing Cate Wood Palliative care 150 When March demands action: nursing beyond the bedside Dion Smyth Conference 152 Lymphoedema care in focus Rida Fazal |
|--|--|