

BRITISH JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY NURSING

bjcn.co.uk

Volume 31 Number 5
May 2026

The only monthly journal dedicated to nursing in the home

District nurses' role in improving oral health literacy for early recognition of mouth cancer in housebound service users

A mixed-methods study of a virtual general practice simulation placement for nursing students in community care

Training needs of community nurses in the assessment and management of urinary continence

BRITISH JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY NURSING

Volume 31 Number 5

May 2026

- Editorial 205
Managing loss and grief through the 'empty chair'
Brian Nyatanga
- Professional 206
Training needs of community nurses in the assessment and management of urinary continence
Myra Robson, Sarah Gebretensae
- Research 214
A mixed-methods study of a virtual general practice simulation placement for nursing students in community care
Aby Mitchell, Behnam Jafari Salim, Barry Hill
- Professional 220
District nurses' role in improving oral health literacy for early recognition of mouth cancer in housebound service users
Emma Louise Middlehurst
- Care of the older person 228
Frailty, loneliness and social isolation in older adults: a holistic approach for district nursing
Fiona Halpin, Bernie Reid, Caroline Crawford
- Comment 234
Social care nursing within the community workforce: recognising specialist practice
Paul John Alegado, Jandryle Trondillo
- Policy 240
Ethical and legal considerations in capacity assessment and the role of community nurses
Hasan H Alsararatee
- Reflections 246
Homelessness, health inequalities and the need for immediate action
Crystal Oldman
- Palliative care 249
The influence of spirituality on community nursing practice and patient experience
Dion Smyth