MEDSURG Nursing Journal Seeks Manuscript Reviewers

MEDSURG Nursing, the Official Journal of the Academy of Medical-Surgical Nurses, invites medical-surgical nurses in private practice, acute, general, long-term, and outpatient healthcare settings, and other professionals with expertise in medical-surgical nursing to join its Manuscript Review Panel. Reviewers evaluate the accuracy and relevancy of information in submitted manuscripts as well as the research designs of submitted studies. The review panel position has no monetary reimbursement but is a vital and respected component of nursing scholarship. If you are interested in serving as a manuscript reviewer, complete the Manuscript Reviewer Application on the journal website at www.medsurgnursing.net/reviewers.
